Dear Henri:

My most enthusiastic congratulations to you on your having been designated a Doctor of Fine Arts by Pepperdine University. I know I speak for your many friends and admirers in commending you on this auspicious occasion. Surely few, if any Southlanders have contributed so much to the wonderful world of music.

I deeply regret that I was unable to leave Washington to personally participate in the Pepperdine University graduation exercise. I am sure you understand how hectic and tense things are now in Congress. I am following the "Iranscam" news and hearings with sadness and disbelief. I cannot understand how, so soon after Watergate, government officials could again so arrogantly abuse their powers. No wonder so many Americans are too cynical to even bother to vote!

My best wishes to you for good health and continued vigorous participation in the international language of music. May you and your wife have a joyful Chanukah--illuminated by the hope of a better and more peaceful world.

Warmest personal regards,

HENRY A. WAXMAN
Member of Congress
